RE: Press conference with Prof. Paul Lambert,
International President of CIRIEC

I take pleasure in inviting you to a press conference Friday, December 1 at 3:30 p.m. to be given by Prof. Paul Lambert, International President of CIRIEC (the International Centre of Research and Information on Public and Cooperative Economy).

The conference will take place in room 663-6 of the Hall Building (the office of Prof. Arthur Lerner, Chairman of our Economics Department and Chairman of the Canadian branch of CIRIEC), Maisonneuve Blvd. and Bishop Street.

Prof. Lambert, Chairman of the Economics Department at the University of Liège, will discuss problems of the role of the public sector in the modern economy. He will be accompanied by his wife, the writer Lili Colonna d'Istria.
